Dear Dr. Lahav:

On behalf of The Rockefeller Foundation, I am very pleased to tell you that your research project, An Intellectual Biography of Israel's Former Chief Justice - Simon Agranat, has been selected for an award in this year's Humanities Fellowships Program. The budget for your project has been approved for the amount of $25,000.

We would appreciate a brief note of acceptance as soon as possible. We will also need to know the starting date and duration appropriate for your fellowship, and whether you wish the award to be made directly to you or through your institution. If you prefer to have the grant administered through your institution, you should request that a letter be sent to us from an appropriate officer specifying that the institution will accept the award without overhead charges.

I am glad to be able to send such good news to you, and to congratulate you on the excellence of your project. We look forward to supporting you through its research and writing.

Sincerely yours,

Alberta Arthurs
Director for Arts and Humanities
